Cheryl Burke Heats up the Winter Season with Salsa Lessons and “Dancing for a Cause” on Dec. 18 in San Francisco

San Francisco, CA – December 5 — Cheryl Burke, of “Dancing with the Stars” fame, will teach a group class in Salsa at her San Francisco studio, Friday, Dec. 18 from 8 to 9 p.m. General dancing will be offered from 9 to 11 p.m.

Tickets are $25/$30. The $30 charge includes a $5 donation to the Ayala Foundation USA relief fund for victims of the Philippine typhoons in September. The disaster claimed 800 lives, displaced 300,000 people and resulted in $850 million in property damage.

In exchange for the additional $5 donation, dancers can attend a standard Friday night ballroom lesson and party at the studio free of charge.

Salsa is consistently ranked as one of the hottest and most requested Latin dances in nightclubs and ballrooms worldwide. The Dec. 18 class is designed for beginning and intermediate dancers. Cheryl will be available for pictures and autographs during the dance party.

Advance reservations are requested since the class will be capped at 130 participants. HYPERLINK "<http://www.cherylburkedance.com>" Cheryl Burke Dance Studio is located at 1830 - 17th Street. To RSVP call (415) 252-9000.

Burke, a two-time "Dancing with the Stars" champion with both singer Drew Lachey and with NFL Hall of Famer Emmitt Smith, continues to be a popular member of the cast, partnering most recently with actor Gilles Marini and Former House Majority Leader Tom Delay.
